12.45pm - 1.30pm	Jehan Casinader – The Power of Stories Each of us has a story about who we are, where we've come from and where we might be going. But where do those stories come from? How do our stories influence our mental health? And how can we tell more helpful, hopeful stories about our lives – especially as we navigate the ups and downs of Covid-19? Jehan Casinader has wrestled with these questions. He's one of New Zealand's top TV journalists. He is also a survivor of depression. In this keynote presentation, Jehan will provide a challenging and enlightening perspective on the power of storytelling. He will offer practical tools to help you to reshape your own story. Kindly supported by Baycourt Community and Arts Centre.

Wednesday 25 th November
8.30am - 8.40am	Welcome to Day 2; Housekeeping
8.45am - 9.30am	Day 2 Keynote – Shelly Davies Shelly Davies, Rockstar Writing-Trainer and Joyful Badass, first became known for her high energy business writing trainings and then for the way she shows up in the world: fully, vulnerably, and imperfectly. And that, she says, is the basis of her growth, her joy, and her badassery: being messy and imperfect, and enjoying the ride. Of Ngātiwai descent from Aotea Great Barrier Island, Shelly's going to start our day off better than coffee with some unfiltered real-talk about knowing ourselves, loving ourselves, being more powerful in our own worlds, and finding joy - even when the world feels like it's falling down around us.
